

Día de los niños Día de los
libros

- To honor children and childhood
 - To promote literacy and the importance of linking all children to books, languages, and cultures
 - To honor a child's home language and culture
 - To promote bilingual and multilingual literacy
 - To promote books and reading among families and communities
 - To connect the public and school library to families and to the community
 - To involve parents as valued members of the literacy team
 - To promote global understanding through library collections that reflect our plurality
